SOUTHERNERS FOREVERMORE

Bequest Program

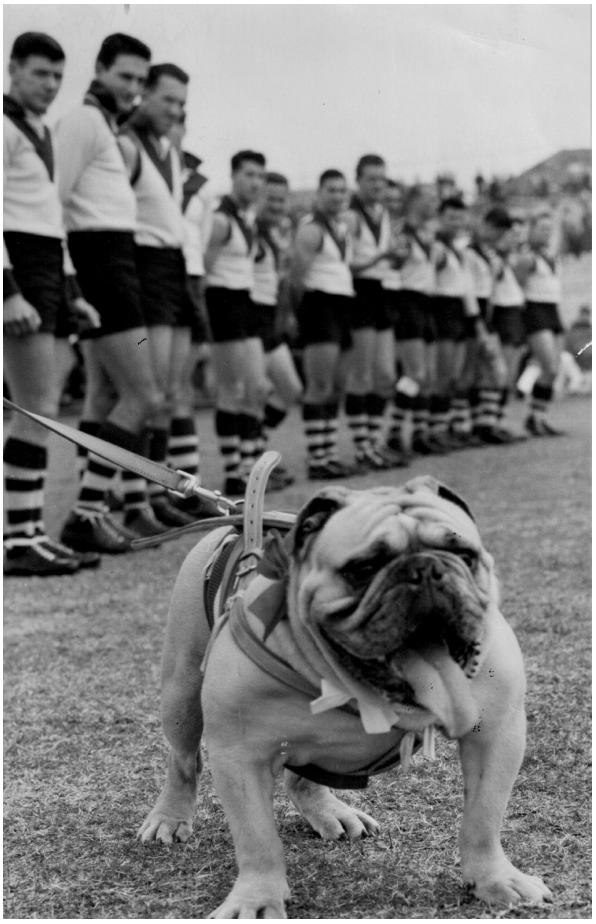

BULLDOGS
SOUTH FREMANTLE FOOTBALL CLUB INC.

Our club has a rich history of spirit and connection, built upon since its founding in 1900.

This enduring support has continued to develop over the years, shaping us into the premier family club that we are today.

The Southerners Forevermore Bequest Program has been established for supporters who wish to make a gift in their Will as an extension of their support for the South Fremantle Football Club.

Making a bequest to the Club is a unique way of supporting the red and white football family, without impacting on your present income and will help secure the ongoing success and viability of the Club.

Thank you for considering a gift to South Fremantle Football Club in your will.

The future of the South Fremantle Football Club is more than on-field success - it is also about creating a club that is financially strong, successful and welcoming for players and future generations of supporters.

Bequests will be managed with the utmost respect. Contributions will be invested into an endowment fund which will be used to build, sustain and secure the long-term future of the South Fremantle Football Club.

The fund will be administered with professional governance and will be exclusively allocated to support the Club's developmental requirements. The fund itself will not be drawn upon to ensure the Club builds a long-term endowment.

You may choose to bequest a percentage of your estate or the residual, which ensures that no beneficiary is disadvantaged if the value of the estate changes over time.

We recommend that you consult your legal advisor and discuss these important decisions with your family and friends.

Please let the Club know if you include a gift in your will so that we can thank you. We will also respect your decision should you wish to join anonymously and will ensure confidentiality of your bequest.

By leaving a bequest today, your bank balance will remain exactly the same tomorrow.

How to make a bequest

Making a bequest is a simple and inexpensive process

You can change your will, in consultation with your family and lawyer, or simply add a codicil to an existing will at no cost. You can define the extent of your bequest in one of four ways:

1. Specific
   A fixed amount of money or proceeds from the sale of certain assets such as life insurance
2. Residuary
   The residue of your estate after taking care of all your other beneficiaries
3. Percentage
   A percentage of the total value of your estate
4. Whole estate
   This may occur when an individual does not have any beneficiaries

We recommend you use the following wording when including the South Fremantle Football Club in your will:

> I bequeath [the whole/a percentage/residuary/something specific] of my estate to the South Fremantle Football Club (ABN: 62 379 082 609) for purposes that it shall determine, and this bequest will be free from all duties.
> The receipt of an authorised officer of the South Fremantle Football Club will be sufficient discharge to my Executor/Trustee.

A will is one of those important things that can be easy to put off. So, if you don't already have one, we'd like to make it a little easier. We've partnered with EveryWill to give our supporters the opportunity to create a will online for free.

You can choose to leave a gift if you wish, but there's no obligation.
